WM. B. NORMAN,

Auctioneer.

Mrs. Sarah M. Kimball

Was born in 1824, at Stafford, N. Y., and married Mr. SAMUEL H. KIMBALL in 1845. She was left a widow in 1868 and for many years travelled extensively, living in Germany, Italy and England for several years.

She purchased most of her collection during this time. Upon her return to Cleveland, she was earnestly interested in the establishment of the School of Design for Women in that city, and for the first few weeks gave the struggling school rooms in her own house, in which to hold classes. For some years she devoted all her energy to the interests of the School, collecting subscriptions from many prominent citizens herself, as she desired to make the school an enterprise of universal interest. Though she ceased her active work after the school was firmly established, she always continued to hold its best interests very near her heart, and was Vice-President at the time of her death, which took place, after a brief illness, in 1895.

This collection was purchased by Mrs. KIMBALL with the intention of presenting the same to the future museum of Cleveland. She made every effort to secure the finest and most important pictures. Price to her was never an objection as long as she could obtain a masterpiece.

Gathering Faggots

FRAPPA, Jose.

The priests, monks and cardinals of this artist have become as familiar to us as household words. This masterpiece is painted with Frapp's characteristic humor, usual brilliancy and finish. It is possibly on account of his early good fortune, with the church for a motive, that Frappa still adheres to it in his subjects. Since his first Salon exhibit, in 1876, the monk has been a part of almost all his pictures. Born at St. Etienne. Honorable Mention, 1888. Honorable Mention, 1889, Exposition Universelle. Medal, 1889. Hors Goncours.
